THE GOSPEL OF HATE IN WEST VIRGINIA.

"I hate the Republican party with all the in tensity of my nature. I intend to teach my children to hate it. I have lived hating it, and mean to go to my grace hating it."-Speech of Jake Jackson, Deni. candidate for Governor, at Governor of Kentucky, while under Fairmont, July 26.

Why the South is Solid for Hancock. Consider what Lee and Jackson would do were they alive. These are the same principles for which they fought for four years. Kemember the men who poured forth their life blood on Virginia's soil, and do not abandon them now. Remember that upon your vote depends the miccess of the Democratic ticket .- [Wade Hampton, at the meeting in the interest of Democratic Harmony in Virginia, at Staunton, July 26.

JAKE JACKSON in his last Saturday night speech in discussing his false charges against General Garfield made such a claring minatement in one narticular that against General Gameid made such a glaring mistatement in one particular that Mr. Morrow arose from his seat and went to Mr. Jackson and had him correct it. Jackson can't be trusted.— Grafton Sentinel.

Our advice to Jake is to carry Jim Mon row around with him wherever he goes. He ought to have had him here last Thursday night. The truth is that Jake Jackson is an ignorant man in regard to the issues of the day, for one in his position, and like most men of that kind he is filled with bitter prejudices. Jake is ing in with mottos, banners, &c., that naturally a Bourbon. He had a father and a patrimony, and it is enough for him to know that his name is Jackson.

Me had a call on Saturday from Mr. J. I.
Carson, a gentleman who was born and raised in the eastern end of this county, and who has been a life-long, Democrat, and who, three years ago, emigrated to Old Virginia. There he lived for three years, and during that time his political opinions, after practical observation of and actual contact with the pure, unadulterated Bourbonism of that land, underwent a very decided change. He has returned to bis native county under the impression that Hie is too short for him to await a desirable and congenial change in Old Virginia.

He came in on Saturday and subscribed for the INTELLORNCER, and says that he shall hereafter vote the Republican ticket. This he will do as the result of a conviction that Republican principles can alone vitalize the South and make it what nature intended it should be.

We asked Mr. Carson if it was true that the colored people, as is claimed by many Democratic newspapers, vote the Democratic ticket in Old Virginia of their own accord. Said he: "I never knew one to do so, and I never heard of but one, and I A Good Way to Convert a Democrat. We had a call on Saturday from Mr. J. I.

am inclined to think that one was a myth. They take to the Republican ticket as natrally as a duck takes to water."

We are inclined to believe, after our conversation with Mr. Carson, that it would have a very salntary effect on a good nany Democrats hereabouts if they would follow his example and emigrate to the South for two or three years. They would, in all probability, come back as he has, with a quantum sufficit of Democracy, and quite as willing as he is to see the Repubicans continue in charge of the Presidency of the United States.

West Virginia Bourbonism

"I am prepared to say that we have the wo Constitution of any State in the Union." (Ex-Judge James Ferguson, of Kana wha county, a Democrat.) This is testimony that no man there as a member. He is a great man in- Starbuck, President; R. C. Graves, Vice tellectually. Everybody admits his great President; W. M. Nace, Secretary; S. B. abilities. He is a ripe and experienced Piper, Assistant Secretary; Eli Moore, lawyer and an ex-Judge of the State. He Treasurer; H. S. Barnes, Sergeant at Arms. was a member of the Virginia Convention of 1850-51. He knows what a good Constitution is when he reads it, and still more when he sees its practical workings. He has carefully studied and observed the workings of the present Bourbon Consti-tution of West Virginia, and his deliberate adgment is that "We have the worst Constiution of any State in the Union."

And so say the people of West Virginia to-day. It they could go back to 1872, to the time at which the Bourbons called their convention, and, at an expense of untold thousands of dollars, framed and put the present Constitution in force, they would vote it down with such unanimity as to make its authors objects of ridicule throughout the whole country.

The Republicans gave to West Virginia a Constitution in harmony with the progress of the age. They modeled it after the free and progressive Commonwealths of the North. They sought to put West Vir ginia abreast of the times, and launch her on a career of progress and prosperity But the Bourbons-the old Virginia Bour bons, who have been the bane of this State ever since its settlement by white men-being full of Jake Jackson's hate for every thing Northern and progressive, determined to remand her to her old Chinese condition, and to sgain erect the old Chinese wall around her which has so effectually shut her out from immigration and civilization. And so they called a Constitutional Convention as soon as they could after they got into power, and sat in it for weeks and months at an enormous expense to the State, and finally overthrew the modern Constitution that the Republicans had given the State and put us all back under the present Chinese government.

The Bourbons of West Virginia, like the Bourbons of Spain, France and Sicily learn nothing in war or peace. No set of rulers have been so often dethroned and driven out of the governments of Europe as the Bourbons, and yet to-day they are the same incorrigible Bourbons that they ever were. They forget nothing and learn nothing. And just so it is with West Virginia

Bourbons. They are just as incapable of wisely ruling a State. They want to be a part of the Solid South. This is their idea of Statesmanship in this age of the world. In spite of nature and our geographica position, they want to keep us separate from our proper relations, just as in the war they wanted to fasten as to the tail end of a Southern slave empire.

After two generations of misgovernment in West Virginia, in which they have kept the State practically unsettled, and during which time they have driven off the natural increase of our population to other States, and covered our soil with R. A. McCABE & CO., Proprietors poverty and ignorance, they are to-day as horoughly Bourbon in their spirit as ever. Jake Jackson is their true and prope representative for chief ruler of the State for the next four years. After he had proclaimed to them his undying hate for the Republican party, and pledged himself that he would carry his hate beyond the grave, by making it hereditary and eternal in his family, they said to him; "Come thou and rule over us." Next to the election of Blackburn as

charge of attempting to disseminate yellow fever clothing throughout the North during the war, come Bourbon in West Virg in advance his eterna of the party that repr ter of a million peop whom he aspires to re

It was the Republican conven tion for the nomination of county officers At an early hour the crowds began pour showed plainly that the fires of Republican enthusiasm were not yet extinct in old Tyler, but only burning low for a few years past. This fall they will be fanned into a flame again that will carry the county by an increased majority. At 10 o'clock a. M. Captain W. M. Pow-

The following is the tacket nominated: Sheriff, Thoa. Smith; House of Delegates, Selmon Wells; Prosecuting Attorney, T. N. Parks; Assessor, J. W. Cheaney; Surveyor, U. Vandegrift; President of County Court, David Thompson; County Commissioners, J. B. Gorrell, F. E. Boyles and Silas Smith.

The President accepted the position in a short, neat and appropriate speech. Two committees were appointed, one an Executive Committee, consisting of eleven members, and a Finance Committee of six members. In addition the President was authorized to appoint an aid to the general Executive Committee in each sub district. Sixty additional members were enrolled.
